IB Recruiting Landscape has Changed

Intense Competition

Students face accelerated recruiting timelines and fierce competition for limited spots at elite banks.

Scaling Constraints

Career centers struggle to provide personalized 1-on-1 mock interviews at the scale students need.

Outdated Resources

Traditional prep materials quickly become obsolete as banks evolve their interview processes and expectations.

Real-Time Practice Gap

Students need adaptive, on-demand tools that authentically mirror actual interviews.

IB Vine fills this gap with scalable, self-paced interview mastery that meets students where they are.

What Students are Saying

IB Vine

"IB Vine democratizes the interview process and helps students across backgrounds ace their interviews."

— UC Santa Barbara

"Prepping with IB Vine was beyond helpful in landing my offer. It is so much more engaging than reading static guides. I now recommend it to younger students."

— University of Michigan

"I used IB Vine throughout my recruitment and couldn't imagine the journey without it. A phenomenal resource."

— University of Toronto

"Thanks for creating IB Vine. I couldn't have landed my offer at Greenhill without it!"

— Indiana University

IB Mock

"The most useful interview-prep tool I've used. The real-time voice experience feels authentic, and the feedback is precise, accurate, and incredibly helpful."

— Northwestern University

"Incredibly helpful — the live feel, feedback, and evaluations make IB Mock my best interview-prep resource so far. As a non-traditional transfer student with limited access to resources, both IB Vine and IB Mock have been an absolute game changer."

— University of Southern California

"The grading and analysis identified my weak points immediately and showed me exactly how to improve."

— NYU Stern

"Much more realistic than anything else I've tried — and the feedback is 100× better than ChatGPT voice."

— UCLA
